Who we are

Bath Speech Therapy delivers independent speech and language therapy to children in the home and/or educational setting. It is managed by Rachel Smith, Speech and Language Therapist, who is registered with the Health and Care Professions Council (HCPC).

Bath Speech Therapy operates a website at www.bathspeechtherapy.co.uk

Bath Speech Therapy is committed to protecting the privacy of information provided by clients.

Collection of personal information

Information about your child may be collected via spoken or written information from parents/carers. With parental consent, information may also be collected from other professionals working with your child (such as teachers, nursery staff, childminders, NHS Speech and Language Therapist). We may also collect information about family members where this relates to your child e.g. contact details for parents and relevant medical or developmental history.

You may use the Bath Speech Therapy website without providing any personal information. However, if you wish to make an enquiry you may provide relevant contact details, such as your name, e-mail address and contact telephone number to enable us to respond to your enquiry. If your enquiry does not result in your child being seen by Bath Speech Therapy then this personal information will be deleted once your enquiry has been dealt with. If your child is subsequently seen by Bath Speech Therapy these details may be added to their personal record. The website contains links to other Internet sites which are outside our control and are not covered by this privacy policy. We are not responsible for data which you provide through any such linked websites.

Our use of personal information

Personal information collected by us via email, telephone or face to face is stored and used by us for the purpose of delivering your child's speech and language therapy.

Any sensitive personal details are stored in a secure and confidential system and processed in confidence by Bath Speech Therapy and shall only be used for the purposes of delivering appropriate speech and language therapy services to your child.

With your consent, information about your child's speech and language needs will be shared with other professionals involved in your child's care, when it is in your child's best interests. A record of your consent is kept within your child's casenotes.

Unless we are required to do so by law, we will not disclose any personal information collected to any person other than as set out above.

We do not employ agents to process personal data, for example we do not employ specialist mailing companies to send out communications.

We do not give or sell client details to any third parties.

How we use personal information

We use this information:

1. To prepare, plan and provide speech and language therapy services appropriate for your child's needs

2. To communicate with you via post, email, telephone, mobile messages and SMS in relation to

- confirming and preparing for appointments
- general communication in between appointments
- sending you reports and programmes for your child (password protected)
- copying you in to communications with other professionals involved with your child (your child's initials rather than full name will be used in emails)
- sending you resources
- sending you invoices and receipts

How we store personal information

All information about you, your child and their speech and language therapy is stored securely in accordance with Data Protection Regulations.

Videos and audio recordings may be taken of clients with parental consent. These are temporarily stored on a password protected tablet. These may then be viewed by the SLT in order to make notes in a client record within 24 hours of the child's appointment. The recordings are then deleted.

The minimum amount of confidential information will be taken out of the Speech and Language Therapist's office base. When your child's information is taken out of the office base it will be kept with the Speech and Language Therapist or will be locked in the boot of the Speech and Language Therapist's car (whichever is deemed to be the most secure at that time).

In accordance with law, all records will be kept securely until your child is 25 years old. After this time all records relating to your child will be destroyed.

Meeting our professional obligations

It is a legal requirement for all Speech and Language Therapists to be registered with the Health and Care Professions Council (HCPC). The HCPC has clear standards of conduct, performance and ethics that all registrants must adhere to.

These standards affect the way in which we process and share information. Specifically: Standard 2: Communicate appropriately and effectively

"You must share relevant information, where appropriate, with colleagues involved in the care, treatment or other services provided to a service user."

Standard 10: Keep records of your work

"You must keep full, clear, and accurate records for everyone you care for, treat, or provide other services to. You must complete all records promptly and as soon as possible after providing care, treatment or other services. You must keep records secure by protecting them from loss, damage or inappropriate access."

Our lawful basis for processing personal information

Our lawful basis for processing and storing personal information is one of 'legitimate interest' (under article 6 of General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR)). We cannot adequately deliver a service to your child without processing their personal information. As it is both a necessity for our service delivery and of benefit to your child, we have a legitimate interest to process and store their data.

Data relating to an individual's health is classified as 'Special Category Data' under section 9 of the GDPR. The regulations specify that health professionals who are "legally bound to professional secrecy" may have a lawful basis for processing this data. Speech and Language Therapists are legally bound to keep client information confidential and it is under this condition that we process and store personal information.

Our responsibilities

We are committed to maintaining the security and confidentiality of your child's record. We actively implement security measures to ensure their information is safe. We will not release your personal details to any third party without first seeking your consent, unless this is allowed for or required by law.

We are constantly working to ensure compliance with current data protection regulation.

Your rights

Data protection legislation gives you, the parent, various rights. The most important of these are as follows:

- You have the right to a copy of information we hold about your child.
- You have the right to ask for your record to be amended if you believe that it is wrong.

How to access your child's records

You can access the information we hold about you by writing to us at the address given below. A copy of your child's records is provided free of charge.

We will provide access to your child's records within 30 days of receipt of all necessary information.

Please make your request in writing to:

Bath Speech Therapy, 64 Bobbin Lane, Bradford on Avon, BA15 2DL

If you have any further questions about how we use your information, please contact rachel@bathspeechtherapy.co.uk

Further information about data protection legislation and your rights is available from the Information Commissioner's Office or by calling 0303 123 1113, 9am to 5pm, Monday to Friday.
